

Home School Agreement

For _____

Parents/Carers will aim to:

- * Make sure that my child attends and arrives at school on time.
- * Let the school know directly of any problems or concerns that might have an impact on my child's work, behaviour or wellbeing, and will not discuss issues publicly through social media.
- * To understand and work alongside the school to promote good behaviour and respect for others.
- * Attend parents' evenings and discussions with school regarding my child's education and development.
- * Support my child with reading and homework.
- * Support the aims and ethos of the school.
- * Foster good relations with other parents and the outside community.
- * Take part in activities that allow the school to benefit the education of my child (e.g. Parent Teacher Association events, parent workshops, open afternoons)

Pupils will aim to:

- * Come to school everyday and on time.
- * Work as hard as I can in class and do my homework to the highest standard.
- * Have a positive attitude to learning at all times.
- * Listen carefully to instructions.
- * Be polite and kind, showing respect to everyone in school.
- * Wear my school uniform.
- * Take good care of school equipment and the building.
- * Set a good example to all other pupils.

Deighton Gates School will aim to:

- * Support your child to reach their maximum potential.
- * Provide the best care and support for your child.
- * Provide a vibrant, well balanced curriculum to meet your child's individual needs.
- * Let you know of any concerns that we have with regard to education, wellbeing or behaviour of your child.
- * Keep you informed of your child's development.
- * Keep you informed of what is happening within school.
- * Be open and welcoming, and offer opportunities to become involved in the daily life of our school.

Together we aim to:

- * Support special needs.
- * Work together to bring out the best in your child.
